

You Deserve The Best Facial cleanser!

Looking for the perfect cleanser? No need to hit the fancy cosmetic counters. With our list of drugstore finds, you're sure to discover the one that'll help you put your best face forward!

If you want . . .

TO SOOTHE SENSITIVE SKIN: Cetaphil Gentle Skin Cleanser

"This cleanser is fabulous," promises Melanie Mills, makeup artist for Dancing with the Stars. "It's soap-free, so it cleans without irritating or drying out skin; that's why dermatologists recommend it for people with sensitive skin. It feels like a lotion, yet cuts through makeup easily."

▶ $6-$8 in drugstores

TO CLEAR UP ACNE:

Neutrogena Oil-Free Acne Wash

Dermatologist Amy Derick, M.D. (DerickDermatology.com), says this balanced acne-fighting formula "dries oils without drying out your skin. The key is salicylic acid; unlike often-used glycolic acid, salicylic acid targets only the oiliest spots and penetrates pores more deeply to stop acne where it starts."

▶ $7 in drugstores

AN ANTI-AGING FORMULA:

Avalon Organics CoQ10 Facial Cleansing Milk

This cleanser is literally rejuvenating, says esthetician and skin-care expert Shelly Ballestero (ShellyBallestero.com). "It has CoQ10, an antioxidant that speeds cell turnover and keeps skin looking healthy, and it has white tea, which helps to neutralize free radicals that can cause wrinkles."

▶ $8 in drugstores

TO GET RID OF REDNESS:

Aveeno Ultra-Calming Foaming Cleanser

For celebrity makeup artist Vanessa Elese (VanessaElese.com), a closeup-ready face starts with this cleanser. "It evens out your skin tone by reducing redness. The magic ingredient is feverfew, an herb that decreases inflammation in blood vessels. After you use this cleanser, your complexion looks totally even."

▶ $7-$8 in drugstores

A CONVENIENT MULTITASKER:

Boots No 7 Quick Thinking 4-in-1 Wipes

Celebrity dermatologist Karyn Grossman, M.D. (GrossmanDermatology.com), jets from coast to coast dispensing advice, and she says these cloths suit her on-the-go lifestyle. "They're great one-stop shopping: They remove eye makeup, cleanse, tone and hydrate the skin. They also have natural ingredients like witch hazel, which shrinks pores."

▶ $6-$7 at Target

—Kristina Mastrocola